RALEIGH
CLASSICAL, MATHEMATICAL, AND MILITARY ACADEMY.

Classical Department, J. M. LOVEJOY, Preceptor, assisted by R. H. MASON.
Mathematical and Military Department: W. P. DISBROW.

THE year will be divided into two Sessions of five months each: the first Session beginning on the first of January, and the second Session, on the first of July.

It is the design of the Preceptor that this Institution shall not be surpassed, in the advantages afforded for acquiring a thorough English, Classical and Mathematical Education.

Pupils will be prepared to enter the Junior Class of any College in the United States.

TERMS OF TUITION.

For English and Mathematical Studies, per Session, $15 00
For Latin, Greek, French, Spanish and Italian Languages, per Session, 20 00
For the use of Philosophical Apparatus, per Session, 5 00

Every thing belonging to the Pupils, private or official, will be found in the Boarding House.

The object of the Military Department being to fit the Pupils to act as officers of companies in the service of the United States, the West Point system of instruction will be strictly pursued, and the Army Tactics be carefully taught, in order to exhibit the boys for the benefit of the Institution, or for any other purpose.

By an Act of the last Legislature, the necessary arms and equipments will be furnished by the State, but Parents who wish their children instructed in the Military Department, will be required to provide them with the prescribed Uniform. Pupils and Guardians are requested not to allow their children or Wards to have accounts in any of the stores, as they will not be responsible for any debts contracted in the absence of the Principal.

N. B. A few Pupils will be taken as Boarders, on the Principal's own Table.

THE LATE GENERAL MACOMB.—We cheerfully comply with the request of a valued friend, by publishing the following notice of the death of Dr. McCLELLAN, of Philadelphia. Though long, it is such a sketch, as to be worth perusal, but it will be generally acceptable to the very many, who, in all parts of this country, knew Dr. McClellan personally.

FROM THE PHILADELPHIA NORTH AMERICAN.

GEORGE McCLELLAN.

On Wednesday morning last, the citizens of Philadelphia saw borne to their last resting place at Laurel Hill, the remains of this eminent man, whose name, for a quarter of a century, has been a household word in every section of the Republic. A man [illegible] of the United States [illegible] of his profession [illegible] a leader in all its movements [illegible] in the [illegible] and [illegible] of his fellow citizens [illegible] his death was [illegible] a shock felt by the whole community; nothing [illegible] a professional man or other citizen has ever vanished from our midst, who was deeply was the occasion of a more universal feeling of sorrow—a sorrow which, indeed, extends far and wide into the country, and reaches many of the most remote districts of the Republic. OBSERVER.

RALEIGH:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 25, 1847.

FROM OUR N. C. VOLUNTEERS.

Extract of a letter from Capt. Kirkpatrick, dated

"CAMARGO, April 28, 1847.

"We leave this morning as an escort to a train of wagons for Monterey. The detachment consists of Captain Shive's and my Company, and 30 Dragoons. It will require fifteen days to go and return; and as we do not anticipate a removal of our Regiment from this post for some time, we love the trip to a broken country, and good water, will recruit our men.

"The men of my Company are quite well, except Hamilton, who has the diarrhœa; and I am apprehensive for the result of his case. You need not expect to hear from me till my return from Monterey, when I shall advise you of the incidents of our trip. I have not lost but two meals since I left Smithville; and as I am blessed with a good appetite, will soon make up for that loss."

Extract of a letter written by a gentleman of Georgia to a relation in this town, dated

"CAMARGO, MEXICO, April 14, 1847.

"There are so many letter writers now in Mexico that any thing from me respecting the operations of the Army would be uninteresting. The particulars of the battle of Buena Vista were known probably in Washington about as soon as they were here; in fact, we have to wait for Gen. Taylor's despatches to come back from that city before we know all the killed and wounded, and who were most distinguished for bravery or cowardice—for they say there were a great number who disgraced the State they came from, but this only gave the others a better opportunity of doing honor to the United States, and to Kentucky, Mississippi, Illinois, &c.

"It is intended to keep the Regiment from which I write to protect Camargo, I suppose, until they can get their location for all the available troops in the world, this is the point. In every direction the dust is intolerable, filling your eyes, ears, and hair at night; and are cut up by the dust and mosquitoes; and in rainy weather, the mud is like soap, one can scarcely walk through the streets. The water is so bad, too, that every body has the diarrhœa as long as they live here; in fact, there is not one redeeming feature in the town. And now the Mexicans have all left it, we can get no vegetables to eat, for see any of the 'greasers' to raise or reckon with.

"If our Regiment behave as well in battle as they have since they left Smithville, they will be a credit to the State of North Carolina. Every body is anxious to hear from the battle of Buena Vista, and how the Carolinians behaved. Gen. Taylor is the idol of the soldiers, and will be of the people generally, on his return to the States. They say he is a plain, unassuming man, and has all the qualifications of a great General. I have no doubt but he will be the next President of the United States. Gen. Butler, Col. Hardin, and Capt. Bowles are here on Gen. Scott's staff, and I understand Gen. Scott's time expires, and that he will probably leave in the month of June, 2,000 men of mine, all regulars or during the war men.

"It states also, that Lane's Regiment of Gen. Taylor's army will in quite a few days be in service between the 17th inst. and 1st of July, say 2,3 from Ohio, 3 from Indiana, 3 from Kentucky, 2 from Illinois, 1 from Arkansas, and three Mississippi. The Ohio boys are very fond of saying they are here to whip the Yankees." I suppose the inference is clear, that Gen. Taylor is to be kept in a state of readiness that he may not be allowed any further participation in the movements of the war. This will no doubt please old General Gaines. But on the contrary, it will still further concentrate the public sympathy on him; for the people will not be slow to see any good or honest reason why one who has shown himself so capable on any service is debarred from all active services.

Of the 10 new Regiments of Regulars of the Union says that 5,715 men are actually at or on the way to Point Isabel or Vera Cruz.

Rumor, our Georgia correspondent informed us, reports, from the most reliable source, that Gen. Taylor is about to resign his command, in consequence of the course pursued by the Administration in relation to the appointments of officers from that State. We hope this rumor is unfounded. Gen. Taylor is the man for the crisis, and the people will not be satisfied to see him retire from the command of the army.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot says:

"The President adheres to the determination to send Gen. Scott to the command of the army in Mexico, and he will probably leave in a few days. Gen. Taylor will be left in command of the troops in the field, and Gen. Scott will have the command of the troops to be raised hereafter

Dr. E. F. Peery's Vermifuge,

OR "DEAD SHOT" FOR WORMS.

A highly valuable preparation, capable from the prompt[illegible] of its action of clearing the system in a few hours of every worm.

THERE is perhaps, no disease to which children are exposed so common and fatal as worms; they [illegible] the symptoms of almost every other complaint, and often produce the most alarming effects before they are suspected. The symptoms which are produced by the irritation of worms in the bowels, and which with some degree of certainty indicate their existence, are as follows—occasional nausea pain, tongue whitely furred, grinding of the teeth, fetid breath, stomach hard and swelled, wasting of the flesh, sickness and pain in the stomach, bowels either too costive or too loose, restlessness, unnatural craving for clay, dirt or other[illegible], convulsions, fits, &c. &c.

Numerous certificates of the value and usefulness of this preparation are almost daily received.
